No.085_2024	March 12th, 2025	JaCER website	Person affected by human rights violations	Regular Member Company	Business partner of regular member company	Japan	Labor and Employment	Unreasonable disciplinary action	The claimant, who is an employee of a business partner of a regular member company, suffered mental health problems as a result of an investigation by the said company that amounted to a violation of human rights. The claimant was subjected to an unfair disciplinary action and filed a petition seeking revocation of the action and compensation for damages.	JaCER has issued an initial review report to the member company in question. The member company subsequently reported that there were no defects in the business partner's response, but indicated that it would not report on the specific facts that were confirmed. Furthermore, upon checking with the reporter, he/she recognizes that no investigation or discussions regarding relief had taken place since the report was made. Therefore, JaCER has not closed the case and is reserving its response.	Monitoring after initial review report	Closed (response completed)	15-Apr-25	-
No.084_2024	March 7th, 2025	JaCER website	Other (anonymity)	Regular Member Company	Regular Member Company	Thailand	Harassment	Customer Harassment by Employees	A claimant filed a complaint alleging that a group of individuals who appeared to be employees of a regular member company had engaged in customer harassment at a restaurant.	JaCER notified the regular member company concerned of the case details, and issued an initial review report. The member company has terminated its handling of the case because it is unclear whether the persons who committed the harassment is a related party and it is difficult to identify the job-relatedness of the harassment. Therefore, this case is closed.	Closed (response completed)	Closed (response completed)	21-Mar-25	26-Mar-25
